Section A: Reading Comprehension

I. Read the following passage.

When Tess heard her daddy say to her tearful mother, "only a miracle can save him now", she went to her room and pulled a jar of coins from a cupboard. She poured all the money out on the floor and counted it carefully. Holding the jar tightly, she made her way to the medical store and placed it on the glass table.

"What do you want?" asked the chemist, "it's for my little brother", Tess answered, "he's really, really sick and I want to buy a miracle."

"We don't sell miracles here, child. I'm sorry." The chemist said, smiling sadly at the little girl. "Listen, I have the money to pay for it, if it isn't enough, I can try and get some more. Just tell me how much it costs."
